EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Steven Capella on June 23, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 11, after "thereby forming the buried plate;" remove "and".

In claim 1, line 11, after "thereby forming the buried plate;" insert on the next line

--wet etching the trench such that the cross section of the upper portion of the trench is squared while the lower portion of the trench is protected by the dopant source material; and --.

In claim 3, line 11, after "thereby forming the buried plate;" remove "and".

In claim 3, line 11, after "thereby forming the buried plate;" insert in a new paragraph

--wet etching the trench such that the cross section of the upper portion of the trench is squared while the lower portion of the trench is protected by the dopant source material; and --.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art, either singly or in combination, fails to anticipate or render obvious, the method including the limitations of: non-conformally partially filling the trench with a dopant source material to form a dopant source having a top surface below a top of the trench, the dopant source material containing at least one dopant, covering the sidewall of the trench above the dopant source with a second material, heating the substrate to cause the dopant to diffuse into the substrate in the trench not covered by the second material, thereby forming the buried plate in combination with the method of wet etching the trench such that the cross section of the upper portion of the trench is squared while the lower portion of the trench is protected by the dopant source material as claimed in independent claims 1 and 3.

In re claim 11, the reasons for allowance set forth in the non-final action mailed January 21, 2005 are maintained.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
